Interlibrary Loans

In case a registered reader needs a document that cannot be found in our library stock, he/ she has the option of interlibrary loan. The service can only be requested in person by filling in the interlibrary loan form. In the case of a domestic document, the requester must pay the postal fees. The cost of the electronic, scanned copy and the photocopy is determined by the performing library. Libraries do not lend out journals, but copies can be requested from these as well. In the case of a document requested from abroad a sum of 4500 HUF must be paid in forward, the postal fees afterward. If the book cannot be brought from abroad, the paid sum will be returned after 3 months. You can receive information about the method and conditions of the service from our staff and at the following contacts:
email: ill@lib.pte.hu
By phone: (72) 501-600 / 28078
