UNIVERSITY OF PÉCS
LIBRARY AND KNOWLEDGE CENTRE

The history of the library

The history of our library goes back to more than fifty years. Its predecessor is the Library of the Teacher Training College of Pécs, which was founded in 1948. In parallel with the name change of the college, the library's name has also changed, but its function has been always the same: to support the education and research, and to satisfy the general cultural needs of the university students and staff. The total number of documents is more than 300 000.

Rules for library use

- At the time of registration, we issue a library card, which requires valid identity documents (ID card, address card, student ID card, NEFTUN code).
- The library card must be validated every year.
- The library card is non-transferable. If you lose the card, please report it to our colleagues!

- Our basic services (visiting the library, using our stock locally, information about the library system) are free of charge.
- Registration is free for the students and workers of the University of Pécs. People who are not students or workers pay a fee in accordance with the library use regulations.
- The detailed regulations about library use is disclosed in the library.

Services

- Library use that has not been specified in the regulation has to be authorized by the library director.

Reading in the library

Our readers can use the reading room, the magazine-reading room and the research room.

Documents only for local use:

- periodicals
- auxiliary library documents
- the stock of the reading room – except night loaning (from closing to opening)

- protected documents (eg. books published before 1930)

Loaning books

Only registered readers with a valid library card can loan. You can loan max. 10 documents at a time, 20 documents can be issued to lecturers of the University of Pécs and max. 15 documents to researchers. The loaning period is 1 month and 3 months for lecturers of the University of Pécs.

Renewing books

Students can renew the loaned documents twice, and lecturers of the University of Pécs can renew 3 times:

E-mail: info-btkttk@lib.pte.hu
Online: www.lib.pte.hu/en/ - in the menu "Reader's data"
Username: the number of your library card;
password: 8 digits of the year, month and day of birth.

We charge a late fee of 20 HUF/document/day for books that are returned late or that have been renewed after the due date. The late fee for CDs and books that have to be returned within 7 days is 100 HUF.

Readers may reserve documents currently loaned by others. The reservation fee costs 100 HUF/document.

The readers' responsibility is to adhere to the deadline. We ask our readers to return the loaned books in time before the due date.

If the reader does not settle the debt despite the warnings, the library takes legal actions and gives the case to the Legal Department of the University of Pécs. In the case of PTE students, the Neptun system disables the registration for exams and course enrolment in case of library debts. The employees and students of the University of Pécs must settle their library debts before the termination of their legal relationship with the university. The reader must reimburse the lost or damaged document or replace it with another copy.

Interlibrary loan

Any document that is not in our stock can be provided by interlibrary loan in the form of document transfer or if the customer pay for the photocopy of the document. The rules concerning interlibrary loan and possible expenses charged to the reader are written in a separate regulation. Phone: 72 / 501-600 / 24359
E-mail: konyvtarkozl.btkttk@lib.pte.hu
