For documents returned overdue or extended late, a late fee is charged of HUF20 per volume per day. For short-term documents, this is HUF100.

- For documents already loaned a reservation can be requested for a fee of HUF100 / document.
- It is the duty of the readers to comply with the due date. The library prompts its readers to return books and scores that are overdue.
- The Library will take legal action to recover debts that have not been called upon repeatedly. The university staff and students must settle their library debts before the termination of their legal relationship with the University of Pécs.
- The lost or damaged document must be reimbursed or replaced by the reader

Interlibrary loan:

Documents not included in our own files are provided by interlibrary loan or by paid copy. The order of this and the costs charged to the customer of the service are contained in a separate regulation.

Musical collection:

A rich collection of colourful audio material is available to our readers in our musical collection. Our goal is to give our music loving readers a complete picture of the history of Hungarian and universal music, as well as the most up-to-date performing practices in the world.

Internet usage:

Our library provides modern computers for computer use and Internet access.

Additional Services:

Our documents can be photocopied, printed, scanned and recorded—in the Student Council Service Bureau operating in the area of the library—subject to the provisions of the copyright law. Any duplication of Master's theses is prohibited!

Library Usage Training:

By prior arrangement.

Catalogues

Our electronic catalogue (OPAC) provides information on the entire library network and the journal locally provides information on foreign and domestic periodicals in the library. Available at www.lib.pte.hu.

A comprehensive catalogue of Hungarian libraries can be found at www.mokka.hu.
